NOM 50/2024, submitted by Cllr. N. McNelis on 02/12/2024

That the Chief Executive and Mayor hold a meeting with the newly elected members of Dail and outline the poor funding of Galway City Council by Department of Local Government and the need for support by the members of Galway West TDs.

NOM 51/2024, submitted by Cllr. N. McNelis on 02/12/2024

That this council calls on Uisce Éireann to come before a City Council meeting and outline its communication plans for water outages and proposed works. In a public forum and not in a workshop setting.

7. Questions

Q 10/2024, submitted by Cllr. A. Curran on 25/11/2024

Can the council provide a catalogue and valuation of all non-operational and property assets, that are owned by the local authority? Specifically, a catalogue of artistic pieces, paintings, sculptures, and other items of historical interest and value.

Q 11/2024, submitted by Cllr. N. McNelis on 02/12/2024

Chief Executive, can you please let me know what structure is in place by Uisce Éireann with Galway City Council to communicate real time information on outages. Is there in your opinion role for City Council to assist in communication with businesses and residents. What is executive opinion of communication from last week's outages and what needs to be done better. Please note the info on text alerts, social media alerts and at call centres were out of date and poor according to all those affected.

8. Correspondence

- (a) Correspondence from Kerry County Council, received on 15/11/2024, resolution passed regarding request for additional €2 million funding to all LAs.
- (b) Response from the Office of the Minister for Transport, Eamon Ryan, regarding NOM 39/2024.
