

Galway City Council Artist in Residence at Áras Éanna, Inis Oírr 2023

Galway City Arts Office is delighted to partner with Áras Éanna on a three-week residency. This residency supports a Galway-City-based Creative Practitioner to attend Áras Éanna Arts Centre on the Island of Inis Oírr from 6th – 24th June 2023. This residence is open to creative practitioners across the spectrum of creativity. Deadline for applications – 15.05.23 at 11am.

Return your completed application to arts@galwaycity.ie

The residency will include:

- Return ferry to the Island
- Accommodation and studio facilities at Áras Éanna
- Use of other Áras Éanna facilities (theatre/galleries/cameras etc.) when available
- Stipend of €1600

Read all questions carefully before you answer them.

Questions marked with * must be answered.

Section A - Contact

A.1*-

Please tick here if you consent to us using your email to contact you about further events, opportunities and news within the Arts Office. If you would like to withdraw your consent at any time, please contact arts@galwaycity.ie

Yes
No

A.2* - Full Name

--

A.3* - Phone Number

--

Section B – About You

Your answers in this section will help the Arts Office to map the range of applicants to this scheme, as well as the diversity of the artistic community within the city. These answers will not impact the result of your application and are fully confidential.

B.1* - How do you describe your gender identity? (Gender identity describes a person's internal sense of gender, whether as a man, a woman, or something beyond the gender binary.)

Prefer Not to Say

B.2* - Do you identify as a person with a disability or are you a person with accessibility needs?

Yes
No
Prefer Not to Say

B.3* - How old are you?

Prefer Not to Say

Section C – Arts Practice

C.1* - Please select the relevant categories that best describe your works primary medium:

Architecture		Sound Art
Socially Engaged Arts		Theatre
Circus		Traditional Arts
Digital Arts		Multi-disciplinary
Dance		Music
Film & Video		Opera
Literature (Irish and English Language)		Visual Art
Street art and Spectacle		Other

C.2* – Your Practice

Please describe your practice as an artist/performer/writer/curator/director etc. and list relevant artistic/creative projects you have been involved in. -

Max 500 words

C.3* – Impact of residency

Outline how this residency will affect/develop/change/grow your creative practice– Max 500 Words

Section D - References

Please give the names and addresses of two persons from whom references may be requested. Your Referee should be able to speak to the quality and nature of your artistic practice. This could be a mentor, lecturer, manager etc.

E.1* - Name of Reference 1*

E.2* – Email Address of Reference 1*

E.3* - Name of Reference 2*

E.4* – Email Address of Reference 2*

Section F - Supporting Documentation

These additional Documents are a very important element of your application. Please ensure you review them carefully.

F.1* – Utility bill or bank statement in your name showing your residential address. You may redact any other personal or financial information. *

F.2* - Artist's CV No more than 2 pages in length. *

F.3 - Examples of your work – High-quality examples of your work that demonstrate your practice at its best. Depending on the media used in your practice, the following should be used as a guide. *

- (i) 5 still images
- (ii) 3 Links to online file for Moving Image/Film – For example, through YouTube or Vimeo
- (iii) A maximum of 3 links to audio pieces for compositions or performances for Sound Art/Music - For example, through YouTube or Vimeo
- (iv) Up to 3 examples of recent catalogues or relevant publications.

- (v) For writers a maximum of 3 excerpts totaling no more than 500 words each

Note -

All supporting materials should be clearly labelled.

Please upload all supporting documentation as one pdf file.